Seward County Fairgrounds

Welcome to the 151st Annual Seward County Fair. On behalf of the Seward County Agricultural Society, I would like to welcome you to one of the premier county fairs in Nebraska. Each year the Seward County Fair showcases the talents and hard work of the county's youth as demonstrated through their participation in 4-H and FFA programs. We invite you to catch one of the many shows, tour the countless exhibits and show your support for these fine young people.

The purpose of the county fair is to showcase agriculture and throughout the fair you will find both exhibits and activities that demonstrate the important role that agriculture plays in Seward County and Nebraska. What fair would be complete without food and entertainment? The Seward County Fair offers a wide selection of your fair food favorites and a variety of entertainment events to suit everyone's tastes.

This fair is made possible by the taxpayers of Seward County, many generous sponsors, commercial exhibitors, and countless volunteers. The Seward County Ag Society would like to thank each of them for making the Seward County Fair a huge success.

See you at the fair!

Ron Wallman
President, Seward County Ag Society

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

Receipts of the fair will be applied to expenses of the fair.

While the greatest possible care will be executed by the management to protect patrons of the Seward County Fair, each individual will be held personally responsible for his/her actions and the management will not be accountable or responsible for any injury.

Seward County Ag Society assumes no liability for loss or damage to any property of the concessionaire, exhibitor or patron, due to theft, fire, tornado, weather conditions or other causes.

The Seward County Ag Society reserves to its board the final and absolute right to interpret these Rules and Regulations, and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the fair.

All rules and regulations apply to all exhibitors. Anything not covered by rules, State Fair rules cover.

Unless otherwise stated, exhibits may not be removed until release time. Release of Open Class exhibits (except poultry & rabbits) is from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on the last day of the fair. Exhibitors must have their pink entry tag receipt to claim their exhibit.

Open Class premium money can be picked up in the Ag Pavilion during the exhibit release time or at the Ag Pavilion within ten working days after the final day of the fair. No premium money will be mailed. In case there are insufficient funds to pay premiums in full, they will be prorated and paid accordingly. Unclaimed premiums will be forfeited.

Exhibits

The management will use diligence to insure the safety of stock or articles after their arrival and placement but in no case will they be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. The management reserves the right to reject unworthy objects of any kind by refusing space or admission to the grounds. Under no circumstances will exhibitors be permitted access to display cases or space where exhibits are shown.

General Rules Pertinent to All Concessionaires & Exhibitors

The Fair Board will assume no liability by reason of injury to property or person by death of any person or persons on or about the premises of any exhibitor or concessionaire, and also the Fair Board shall not be liable for any injury to any property or persons on the premises of any exhibitor or concessionaire.

The Fair Board reserves the right to move an exhibitor or concessionaire to a different location should it prove necessary because of previous commitments or for the best interest of the Fair.

The Fair Board reserves the right to remove exhibitors, vendors, or fair participants whose actions cause disruptions to normal fair operations.

The illegal use of alcohol or drugs for humans or livestock during the fair is prohibited.

Public Safety

The superintendent of this department shall have general police supervision of the grounds. They shall have full charge of the police force other than plain clothes men. They shall be subject to orders from the Fair Board. Any person who shall fail to perform the duties assigned them or who shall leave their post of duty without permission to do so, shall be immediately discharged and forfeit such part of their salary as the Superintendent may direct.

All officers and policemen shall be sworn in as conservators of the peace, and it shall be their duty to arrest any person creating a disturbance or violating any of the rules and regulations of the Fair, or the laws of the State.

The Seward County Ag Society reserves the right to conduct the fair, exhibition, entertainment, livestock shows, etc. in the best interest of the family fair and the fair goers. Should protesting groups endanger the production of the fair, the Seward County Ag Society reserves the right to use law enforcement agencies to allow the fair to run properly and on schedule.

Protests

Open Class protests must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $10 in the livestock departments and $5 in other departments, which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal, and must be filed with the Secretary within 12 hours after cause of protest. No complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent will be considered by the Board.

Superintendents

No superintendent or assistant will begin work on the books and records of any department until entirely familiar with established system.

A superintendent has full charge of their department, subject to the orders of the Fair Board. The superintendent will have direction of all articles in their respective department, see that all animals will have suitable stalls and pens, and that articles are conveniently arranged for judging. They will make recommendations to the Fair Board for the appointment of assistants in their departments.

In case of disagreement the superintendent is directed to refer the party to follow the protest process outlined above.

Rules & Entries

In the event of conflict of general and special rules, the latter will govern. Please observe the rules. Superintendents have the right to reject late entries.

All entries must be filed with the superintendents no later than the dates and times specified in these rules. Exhibitor must sign in at registration tables during entry times. Entry tags may be obtained free from the Ag Pavilion, Jones Bank, Cattle Bank or the Seward County Extension Office and must be filled out completely. Please note that the exhibitor's name must be included on all tags for proper premium payment.

“Professional” is defined as someone who earns money from their skill such as teaching or selling their skills or products.

Judging in the Ag Pavilion begins at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, August 4.

Competition limited to exhibitors from Seward County and the surrounding counties. All entries must be the work of the exhibitor in the last five years. After taking first premium, an article cannot compete again. In case there is a single entry in a class number, the judge shall decide whether or not the article is worthy of a prize. Only Seward County residents may be eligible to receive large rosettes or any other special award.

The management will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur to exhibits, but the usual precautions for safety of the exhibits will be taken.

All exhibitors, except rabbit, poultry and fowl, will retrieve their entries on, Sunday, August 8, 3:30-4:30 p.m., or make arrangements with the Open Class Superintendent. Exhibitors must have their pink entry tag receipt to claim their exhibit. If entries are not picked up, prize money will be forfeited. Not responsible for entries left at fair. Rabbit, poultry and waterfowl exhibits are released from 2:00-4:00 on Sunday, August 8.

Information on entering exhibits at the Nebraska State Fair may be obtained from the Open Class Superintendent.
